COURSE MATERIALS:

TEXT: Web Site Design Made Easy by Dennis Gaskill - Optional. Used as a resource ONLY! You may use any HTML book if needed.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Develops skills to create and maintain a basic Web page using HTML. Includes text formatting, lists, graphics insertion, tables, and the use of links to other pages.

COURSE NOTES:

Plagiarism: Any work that I determine to be plagiarized will receive a no-credit grade and possible removal from the course. Plagiarized means written or electronic material copied from a text or from another student's work. If one part of an assignment is determined to be plagiarized, the entire assignment is in question.

Withdrawal deadline: To receive a withdrawal grade, the student must fill out the proper forms at the Registration Center. Failure to attend class is NOT withdrawal. However, the instructor reserves the right to drop students from the course due to poor attendance or lack of participation and prerequisite skills.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Grades: You can check your grades by clicking on the Assessment button and the sublink, grades. If you feel you have a grade error contact me immediately.

Assignments: Once you have the assignment completed you will upload (using FTP protocol program) the completed assignment to the Internet. Then you will use ONLY Delta's e-mail; Webmail, and send me along with your name the URL; starting with http.

If an assignment is not uploaded to the Internet and you have not e-mailed me using Delta's e-mail to let me know, it will not be accepted. Only one late assignment will be accepted if the due date is missed. No late assignments will be accepted during the last week of the class.

All assignments must have the appropriate SUBJECT line: class, section number and assignment name.

For example: CST 110-93, My First Web Page (Assignment 1)

Be sure to include your name and the URL of the assignment. For example: <http://www.delta.edu/cjdrouse> starting with http: of your completed assignment in the body of the e-mail message.

ALL assignments MUST be uploaded to the Internet. You must follow the submission directions for this course.

Quiz: There is a 10 question quiz the first week of the course that covers the notes on the Announcement section in Educator and the content found on the syllabus. The Final Exam is a comprehensive exam worth 75 points.

Exam: (Final Project)

There is a comprehensive Exam (Final project) that is done using ONLY your own HTML code. You are NOT to use any other software code to create any assignments or exam.

Listed below is a weekly schedule that you must follow. It is recommended that you print off the syllabus and highlight the important due dates.
